Summer Assignment: Mark-making Still Life

Create an interesting still life from objects at home, and put a single light source on it. The stronger the contrast of light the better!

Using this ball point pen, draw your still life as you see it utilizing a type of mark-making to add value to your piece. Your challenge is to use the pen completely and bring it back on the due date completely empty. 😊

Make sure to fill the page, considering your background. Treat the background almost as important as the still life itself!

Your project (and pen!) is due Wednesday, September 4th

Size: 12''x16''

Etchings by Giorgio Morandi, utilizing hatching to create his still lifes. Google his work to see more examples to inform your piece
